There are over 60 children on our wait list hoping for a special friend in their lives. Help a child experience new activities by bringing them into the everyday activities you are already doing with your family: play sports, do crafts together, go to the zoo, play board games, or simply hang out together. It is the time together that is important! For information about mentoring, please visit our website: www.kidsnkinship.org or call to register for an orientation to learn what Kids 'n Kinship is all about, at 952-892-6368. Thank you!
