When they had finished everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child [Jesus] grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Luke 2: 39-40

Dear Friends in Christ,

Children, just like Jesus did, need loving parents and a community of caring adults to grow to maturity, health, and wisdom. I think the Gospel hints that the favor of God came upon Jesus through the love, care, and instruction of the adults in his life. We cannot grow up by ourselves. We need adults of faith to help us grow.

Notice where Jesus grew in strength, wisdom, and favor of God, it was with his parents, Mary and Joseph in his small hometown of Nazareth. Jesus did not grow up in the Temple in Jerusalem or the halls of learning with the Rabbis and scribes. It was in the context of daily life with family, friends, and neighbors. It was in the carpenter's workshop with his dad, learning a trade. It was with his family and community in the local synagogue for worship each week.

Dr. David Anderson and Paul Hill, from their book, Frogs Without Legs Can't Hear, elaborate on this point. "The primary evangelical task of the church is to pass on faith in Jesus Christ...The church tends to be preoccupied with what takes place within the institutional and physical walls, falsely assuming that within the congregational building, all the necessary elements are present and available for faith to be formed and flourish. Many church leaders and even everyday church members think in this way because this is the way they were raised to think." They emphasize that, "the faith life of the home is also critical."

I share these insights with all of you, to affirm and encourage all of the families, parents, kids, and members of Christus Victor, and beyond, who are naturally working and living this out. What a joy to witness God's plan at work in the everyday lives of people of all ages! Thank you to parents, step-parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, godparents, and caring adults who walk the talk of faith every day, helping the children, youth, and young adults in your lives to "catch the faith." Thank you to kids and youth who bring your energy, insights, questions, and joy to the adults in your life. You are an inspiration and encouragement to those around you.

God's plan for us, modeled in the life of our Lord, Jesus Christ, is that we need each other to grow in strength, wisdom, and faith. We are reminded of that old children's rhyme, "Here's the church, here's the steeple, open the door and see all the people." Ministry is about people, together in relationship, both inside and outside the church walls. Thank you all for being an important part of this church community. God shows us we need each other. Think what that may mean for you this coming year.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Kent Claussen Gubrud

Book of Faith Small Group Initiative Begins

The Small Groups Have Begun! Ten small groups are starting to meet this month to work on "Opening the Book of Faith." They will be meeting once a month for four months for Bible Study, Fellowship, and Renewal.

What if you are still interested, but haven't found a group that works for your schedule?

Talk to Pastor Kent about starting a new group that works for you. We will help get people connected and provide coaching for the Small Group leaders.

Interested in joining a small group or have more questions about the Initiative? Contact Pastor Kent at 952-454-6927 or youthrev@pro-ns.net with any questions.

Tentmakers to Facilitate CV Youth Program Checkup

With today's materialism, entertainment, and option-overload, many churches struggle to compete for the attention of young people. Christus Victor's goal is to have a Christ-centered, purpose-driven youth ministry and we've asked Tentmakers for help.

To develop our plan, CV youth leaders, parents, teachers, staff, council and youth will gather over a series of five meetings with a Tentmakers Ministry Consultant to assess our current program, dream and set goals for the future, and learn the strategies to reach those goals. YMMP (Youth Ministry Management Plan) meetings are scheduled for March 14th, 15th, April 1st, April 4th and April 5th.

This event has been paid for with funds the Youth and Family committee received from the 2008 Garage Sale, so if you are interested please talk to Corey Betchwars @ 952-454-6927 or Paula Nierengarten @ 651-683-9012.

Participate in Pastor Kent's Sabbatical: Join a Learning Group

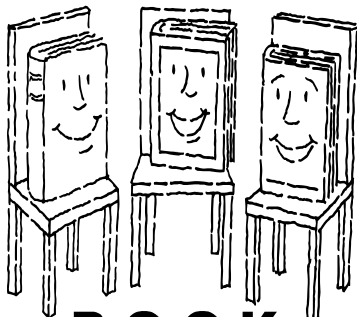

I need your help! For this sabbatical time to benefit the whole congregation, I will be asking you to not only pray for me during my time away, but to participate in my learning and growing. I would like to invite you to consider joining one of three different groups of church members to do your own reading and reflecting on the same books I will be reading and reflecting on over the course of my sabbatical.

One group made up of junior and senior high youth and their parents will read and reflect on Frogs Without Legs Can't Hear, by David Anderson and Paul Hill. I hope that this will compliment the work that will be going on around the Youth Ministry Management Plan with Tentmakers, and the great work that Pastor Laura and the Children and Family Ministries Committee is doing.

A second group made up of young men and older men will read and reflect on Adam's Return: the Five Promises of Male Initiation, by Richard Rohr. I will actually be participating in this Male Initiation, and so will bring fresh, real life experience to the discussion and be eager to hear what others are thinking about Male Initiation.

A third group of adults will read and reflect on The Contemplative Pastor: Returning to the Art of Spiritual Direction, by Eugene Peterson.

After I return from my sabbatical I will be meeting with these three groups separately to discuss with each other our reflections and ideas that come out of our shared reading. This will give me a chance to share with a wide spectrum of people from the congregation, in an intimate and less formal setting, some of my experiences and discoveries from my sabbatical time. This discussion will provide some common ground for ideas on how we can improve how we pass on the faith from one generation to another and from one person to another through the ministries of our church.

If this sounds interesting to you, please contact me at either (952) 454-6927 or youthrev@pro-ns.net and let me know which group you would like to participate in. I am also looking for people who would be willing to lead these small groups while I am away.

Sign up for the February 20-22 Men's Retreat at WAPO

CV men, mark your calendars for the February 20-22 Men's Retreat at WAPO. All you need to do is sign up, turn in your $50 deposit (total cost of the retreat is $125) and get ready to dive into the topic of male spirituality. Is there such a thing as male spirituality? There is. Men need mentors, elders and other men to go deep into the male journey of faith and life in God through Jesus Christ. Does that sound like a heavy topic for a men's retreat? Actually it is incredibly exciting! This retreat represents an adventure of discovery with other brothers in Christ! We will have a blast complete with movies, discussions, fire, broomball, laughter, prayer, praise and worship! Invite your friends and brothers in Christ, young and old, to join us for a fun, faith-filled weekend. We will be putting together a broomball team for the WAPO Broomball Tournament that weekend too.

Contact Pastor Kent (952) 454-6928 or Scott Berg (952) 431-6114 with any questions.

Attention: 5th Graders and their Parents

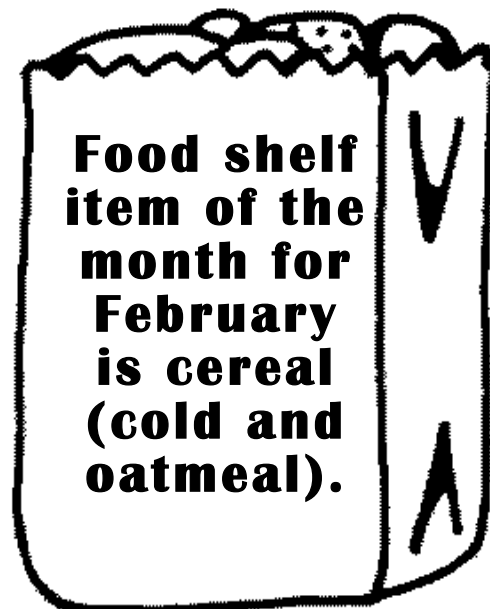

Pastor Laura will be leading the 5th grade First Communion class designed for 5th graders and their parents/guardians. We will meet for five sessions starting just before Lent during the Sunday School hour. The dates are: February 22, and March 1, 8, 15, & 22. During these classes, we will all learn lots of interesting things about Holy Communion such as: what it means why do we have it every week, and what does the wafer taste like? The 5th graders will receive communion for the first time on Maundy Thursday, which is April 9th this year. We will be meeting in the Sanctuary at 9:45am. Call Pastor Laura with any questions. See you there!

2009 Garage Sale Scheduled for August 14th and 15th

It is NOT too early to begin preparing for this momentous sale that benefits CV, our neighbors AND other charitable organizations. Our sale makes a difference! We've got six months to go and here's what we need to do:

- * Mark the dates on your calendar!
- * Start scouting around your house and garage for items to donate. Set them aside and get a head's start on gathering treasures to sell.
- * Consider taking on a new role. Co-chairs Julie McDonald and Nancy Erler are looking to fill two volunteer roles: Furniture Manager (responsible for managing the furniture sale) and Clean-up Manager (responsible for coordinating the clean-up after the sale ends)

Contact Co-chairs Julie McDonald (952-250-1503) and Nancy Erler (952-432-8081) with any questions or to volunteer.

Thanksgiving Basket Ministry Provides Meals for 200 Local Families

The Social Ministries Committee would like say THANK YOU!!! to everyone who made our 2008 Thanksgiving Basket ministry such an incredible success. With your work and donations we were able to provide 200 families in great need not only a Thanksgiving Day meal but the love of God through caring hearts and hands. It was a true gift to hear from recipients how much it meant that someone cared enough to reach out to them.

What an awesome partnership this ministry has become. A big portion of our garage sale concession stand sales goes towards the Thanksgiving baskets, so, if you donated delicious baked goods, pop, food, ice or a fabulous tent and equipment to make it happen, thank you! If you purchased a tasty snack or beverage from our concession stand, thank you!

We also could not have been so successful without your generous donations this fall. We had more participants in our Adopt-A-Family fundraiser than ever before. We also had two unexpected donations from the kids in Faith Trek and from the Endowment Committee, and our partners at Thrivent Financial once again gave their enthusiastic financial support. It was wonderful to have Thrivent and so many people of all ages participate financially in support of this ministry, thank you!

When the day came to put together and distribute the Thanksgiving baskets, we had many more partners come together to share their gifts, time and fellowship. We had the gift of a truck donated to pick up the food, as well as the gift of a wonderful manager at Apple Valley Cub Foods that worked hard to get us the best prices on the basket ingredients, thank you both! Once the food arrived at Christus Victor we had approximately 100 people of all ages working together, not only from Christus Victor, but from Casa de Oracion and Lily of the Valley as well. It was an awesome and inspiring sight to see so many people working in harmony to get the job done. We had people assembling boxes, carrying in food from the truck, putting food in baskets, and carrying completed baskets to the Narthex and hallway. Next, we had people greeting the basket recipients, carrying out baskets to their cars for them, and delivering baskets to Lewis House and Dakota Woodlands. What a glorious community of caring hearts and hands, thank you all so much!

How important was this ministry to the people we served? One woman rode her bicycle from miles away in slippery road conditions in order to pick up her basket; it meant that much to her and her family. And you know what? We had generous volunteers make sure she had a safe and less stressful ride back home in their car, thank you! Through the glory of God, in a variety of ways, members of Christus Victor partnered with our friends at Lily of the Valley and Casa de Oracion, with Thrivent Financial and Cub Foods to reach out and make a difference in the lives of those who need it the most. The gift of a meal, the gift of knowing someone cares, the gift of being able to serve and share fellowship, what blessings all. Social Ministries cannot thank you enough for all the ways you support this ministry near and dear to everyone's heart. God's richest blessings to you all!

Senior Connection Moves Into 2009

On February 15th, we're planning to see CHURCH BASEMENT LADIES II at the Plymouth Theatre. If you haven't signed up by the time you read this issue, you have probably missed the boat because reservations were to close in January - but if you want to go, check anyway. At our January 14th meeting hosted by Orville and Dan, we made a couple of changes on our winter schedule:

In March we will visit a Russian Museum located in the old Mayflower Church in Minneapolis. Date has not been set at press time so watch for more information in the March issue and worship bulletins. Following that visit, we plan to go to a nearby restaurant for pie and coffee.

April 15th is another event planned with the working seniors in mind. We will go to see Burnsville High School production of THE SECRET GARDEN. Showtime is 7:30.

We do a lot of laughing and chattering at our gatherings--except when we have to be quiet for a performance or show. We are eager to have more of the fun loving seniors at CV join us.

Baskets of Love Sunday Scheduled for March 29th

Mark your calendars! The Missions Committee invites you to participate in Baskets of Love, the silent auction which raises money for our partnership ministry in Tanzania. NEW THIS YEAR the auction will feature items from the Dominion Republic Mission Trip and proceeds from those items will go to Kids Alive. More information will follow in the March newsletter. Contact KC Claussen Gubrud at 612-722-2896 with any questions.

Munchkin Minute By Doug Ashby

Well, after a wonderful holiday season we are all back in the swing of things. The kids are a little calmer—just a little. I'm a little more relaxed—again, just a little. And we are diving deeply into the things that Jesus did and taught while He was here on earth: Jesus as a youngster and Jesus as an adult; miracles He performed, lessons He taught. These will all be covered throughout the rest of the school year. And, of course, lots of games will be played and many-a-craft will be crafted. Fun stuff!

Speaking of fun: One of these Sundays coming up we will go on a sledding field trip. Yeah! That's it for now. May you all enjoy the warmth and love of family and friends during these cold winter months.

This year we have three SWAT Team seniors: Sara Fischer, Dan Berg, and Alaina Johnson. Each month we'll spotlight a different senior and their experiences being involved with the SWAT Team. You'll have an opportunity to meet them and see where they are serving at Christus Victor. They will also share their experiences serving and why they think the youth of our congregation should serve in the SWAT Team. Enjoy the months of March, April, and May!

Easy Ways to Build Assets for and with Your Child

FAST FACTS

ASSET #32: Planning and Decision Making

Youth are more likely to grow up healthy when they know how to plan ahead and make choices.

30%

*of youth surveyed by Search Institute have this asset in their lives.

What Are Assets?

Assets are 40 values, experiences, and qualities that help kids succeed. "Planning and decision making" is one of five social-competencies assets.

* Based on Search Institute surveys of 217,277 6th- to 12th-grade youth throughout the United States during the 1999-2000 school year.

Putting Planning into Action

Six-year-old Tommy Tighe had a dream:

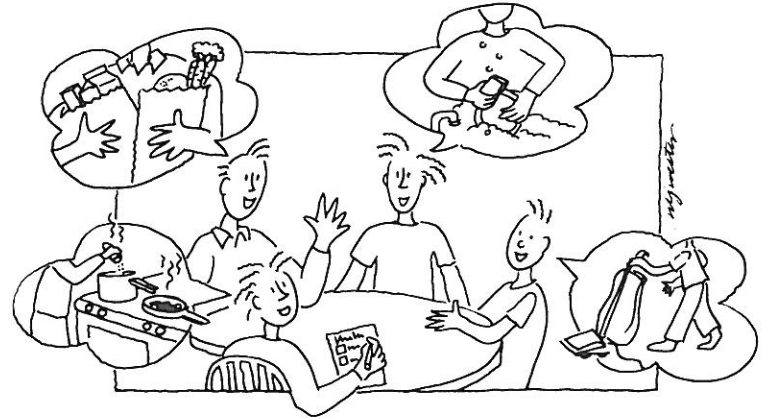

He wanted to create world peace. "Ever since I was four, I had a vision that I could cause peace in the world," he said. "I wanted to make a bumper sticker that says, 'PEACE, PLEASE! DO IT FOR US KIDS,' signed Tommy."

So he developed this plan:

1. Call about the cost of printing bumper stickers.
2. Make a plan for a loan so that the printer can get paid.
3. Have bumper stickers printed.
4. Figure out how to tell people about the bumper stickers.
5. Get addresses of world leaders.
6. Write a letter to all of the presidents and leaders of other countries and send them each a free bumper sticker.
7. Talk to everyone about peace.
8. Call the newspaper and tell them about my business.
9. Arrange for a talk at my school.

Once he decided the plan was a good one, he acted on it. Soon Tommy had a picture of Mikhail Gorbachev, former president of the former Soviet Union, that included his autograph saying, "Go for peace, Tommy." Tommy also sold a bumper sticker to former U.S. president Ronald Reagan.

He has since sold more than 2,500 of his bumper stickers and repaid his $454 loan. Not only has he done well, his story appears in the best-selling book Chicken Soup for the Soul, and he also appeared on The Joan Rivers Show.

When Joan Rivers asked if his bumper stickers really made a difference, he replied, "So far I've had it out two years and got the Berlin Wall down. I'm doing pretty good, don't you think?"

time together

Three ways to strengthen your child's planning and decision-making skills:

1. When your child receives long-term assignments, offer to help her or him plan and make decisions in order to finish them on time.
2. When making family decisions, use careful thought. Make a list of pros and cons with your child.
3. Give your teenager full responsibility for cooking a family meal once a month. Give your younger child specific tasks in meal preparation.

Who Plans? Who Decides?

Write the names of family members who plan, decide, and do each of the following:

	Who plans?	Who decides?	Who does?
Family relaxation activities
Meals
Holiday celebrations
Household chores
Extracurricular activities

Who does most of the planning, decision making, and follow-through?
How can all family members be included in all areas?

Helpful Hints

Tips that build planning and decision-making skills in your child:

- Encourage a daily to-do list. Checking off items can be satisfying.
- Allow room for mistakes, but don't rescue your child from the consequences.
- Remember that when children know how to plan, they're more apt to make their dreams come true.
- Celebrate your child's progress and accomplishments in decision making and planning.

Quick Tip:

Help your child set realistic goals. Then make a plan to reach them.

talk together

Questions to discuss with your child:

- What steps do you go through before making a decision?
- How do you feel about your planning skills? How can we support and improve them?
- Which decisions are you currently struggling with? What plans do you need to make?

"If you deliberately plan on being less than you are capable of being, then I warn you that you'll be unhappy for the rest of your life."
